ST. LUKE

Sunday, August 6 was a typical day for the home comers and friends of St. Luke Baptist church to attend the annual homecoming celebration. An overflowing crowd was present.

Rev. J. McLaughlin was in charge of the a.m. services which was high spirited and enjoyed. Rev. Watson and his choir and ushers from White Rock Baptist church, Danville, Va. was in charge of the p.m. services.

The ladies of the church served a bountiful lunch. Tables were heavily laden with appetizing foods.

Mrs. Josephine Nowlin at the piano the Jr. Choir gave the music for the a.m. service. Visiting ministers were Rev. Ahrim from N. Y., Rev. Aaron Woods also from N. Y., and Rev. Cable and Watson from Danville.

The offering for the day was wonderful. The regular revival services will begin Monday, August 7th at 7:30 p.m.

Rev. Chestnut will be the evangelist.

This was an enjoyable and complete day so the annual homecoming day moves into history.

CONCORD

Mrs. David Boger, Dr. Mac Kelly, and Grady Jones attended the weekly sessions this week of the School of Christian Mission at Randolph-Macon Womans College.

Although the school is considered to be a predominantly adult activity, the Womans Society of Christian Service of Bethlehem United Methodist Church sponsored Grady Jones, as one of the youth from this district. The mission study was on India.

4-H Club to Form in Oakville

All persons in the Oakville community or surrounding areas who may be interested in forming a community 4-H club are asked to meet at the Oakville school on Wednesday, August 16 at 2:00 p.m. this club will be primarily for teenagers – those in grade 7 and up. Parents or interested adults will be most welcome as a community 4-H Club depends on persons in the vicinity serving as leaders.

A community 4-H Club in Oakville can mean a great deal to the people of the area. In addition to the service projects that 4-H clubs often complete, a 4-H club offers an opportunity for recreation, group meetings, trips, awards, and other enjoyable learning experience for young people.

Remember, August 16, 2:00 p.m. at the Oakville School. Refreshments will be served. If you can't come, but would like to be a member, please send word by someone else.

CANAAN BAPTIST

He that hath my commandment, and keepth them, He it is that loveth me. John 14:17

McCray and the 2nd Mineral Spring Choir will be in charge of the evening service. The speaker for the week will be Rev. H. E. Spears, from Afton Va. Please plan to attend these services start ing at 7:30 p. m., Monday through Friday.

Roanoke Valley Horse Show August 10-13th

The first annual Roanoke Valley Horse Show will be held Aug. 10,11,12 and 13, 1972, in the Salem - Roanoke Valley Civic Center. This event will be sponsored by the Roanoke Valley Horseman's Association, Inc. $15,000 in prize money, trophies and ribbons will be given. The show is a member of and is rated "Class A" by the following organizations; American Horse Shows Association, Va. Horse Shows Association and is a member of the National Tennessee Walking Horse Commission, which operates out of Shelbyville, Tenn., and offers 153 classes in 18 divisions.

The Roanoke Valley Horse Show is the first "A" rated indoor show to be held in the state of Virginia. Performances will start at 9:00 a.m., 1:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The show on Sunday will begin at 1:30 p.m.

For special entertainment, the Radford Redcoats of Radford College will perform. This drill team will also entertain at the Norfolk show and the Virginia State Show in 1972.

Perpetual trophies in the Three-Gaited, Five-Gaited and Walking Horse Championship Stakes will be offered.

The use of the civic center will make the show unusual in many respects. Between 400 and 500 horses are expected to enter the show and entries have been received from as far north as Maine and from as far south as Florida.

Tickets are available at Salem-Roanoke Valley Civic Center, Globe Record Shops, and Robertson Drug in Lynchburg.
